

Node JS

Experience- 4-5 years

Job Description:

- Should understand the architecture of Node Js language, and must have had at least 1 year of solid experience in writing robust code in this language.
- Should be well versed with basic algorithms on (array, Linked list, stack, queue
- Thorough understanding of MySQL, in that, creating all types of joins (inner, outer, left, and right) on multiple tables, views, and triggers are a piece of cake for you.
- Further, you should have a decent understanding of database designs so that you can make quick decisions about normalization, inclusion/exclusion of foreign keys, etc
- Should have a decent understanding of code repository tool such as GitHub
- Should be well versed with the basics of AWS (understanding of cloud architecture would be a plus)
- Should be aware of the commonly used encryption techniques such as JWT,
- API encryption, Token management, etc

Exposure to working in E-commerce related applications as well as in a startup environment would be an add on.